

You guys, please please please step up to your duty to serve the people, not the partisans. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers media consolidation poses to freedom and fairness.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please, someone with a conscience work for fairness! Thank you.
